JACK GRANT GETS TRIAL BY JURY

Chief of Police Jack Grant appeared in court this afternoon and demanded a jury trial which was granted. The case was set for February 6th to permit the district attorney to be present as he has business that will detain him in Carson City the greater part of the week. Judge Lawrence of Manhattan will hear the testimony as Judge Grier is disqualified owing to his official relations with Grant, who acts as constable of his court.

INFLUENZA BREAKS OUT ONCE MORE

The influenza has broken out afresh, although it is not as bad as would appear from the following list of cases reported to the health officer. Some of these cases were supposed to be isolated until the patients recovered and are now purchasing their regular avocations. One of these cases was that of Mrs. Louis J. Dellinger, wife of the superintendent of the Jumbo Extension, in Goldfield, who has returned home convalescent. The list of cases turned into Dr. C. J. Richards today includes: Mary Spiller, cook; Mrs. Oscar Rogers, Mineral street; Paul Sapsel, from the Victor shaft; who is at the Mine Operators' hospital; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Kuzma, a young married couple; Mrs. G. Jones, cook, living at the Harrington house; Mr. and Mrs. John Manion, Frank Connolly, Mineral street, and Mrs. John Dyan, wife of the consulting engineer of the Jumbo Extension.

Mr. and Mrs. Manion have fully recovered and the doctor pronounced their case a mild type.

SALE OF DIVIDE MINING CLAIMS

R. G. Williams, the veteran trouble shooter of the Western Union, closed a deal this morning by which the Charles S. Sprague company of Goldfield, takes title to the Alto group of four claims in the Gold Mountain mining district. The group lies east of the Tonopah Divide and west of the East Divide and was located in 1914 and was taken over by Williams about two years ago. The East Divide will hold an interest in the new group.

BIRTHDAY PARTY CELEBRATED

Little Miss Helen Murphy celebrated her eleventh birthday with a party at the home of Mrs. M. E. Hippert, on South street, last evening when sandwiches, cakes and ice cream were distributed after the young guests enjoyed themselves with various games, music and dancing. The guests were: Lenora Lowdermilk, Calra Belle Glass, Gladys Wittenberg, Mildred Konkolc, Helen Norris, Margaret Lorenz, Ellen Dobrowsky, Marion Dobrowsky, Francis Murphy, Helen Murphy, Kathryn Murphy, Thomas Morris, Herman Meyer, Harold Lorenz, Charles Glass, Frank Wittenberg and "Rags".

WAS NOTHING BUT COLD TEA

Interesting Query Now Is, What Did the "Rakes" of Flushing Think They Were Drinking?

An impressive entry in the influence-of-mind-over-matter contest is submitted by the Flushing correspondent. A prominent turner of an honest penny of Flushing, it seems, with many a sly, knowing and suggestive wink passed the word about that he was now in a position to supply prominent residents of that legally dry district with what he with an air of infinite facetiousness denominated cold tea, to be drunk on the premises.

Prominent rakes of Flushing thronged to the premises at once, a thriving business soon was built up and many a tip was snatched and many a genial jest was exchanged over the so-called cold tea, the consensus of the best opinion being that our turner of an honest penny must have procured for his patrons the private stock of some old Kentucky cellar. Finally one day there came along a phlegmatic, unimaginative fellow who ordered a beaker of cold tea in the accepted important but secretive manner, started to quaff and laid down the dipper with something, we are sorry to say, very like an oath. "Why, that's nothing but cold tea," he exclaimed with kindling anger.

Our turner of an honest penny frankly acknowledged that such in very sooth was the fact and had been the fact in very sooth since the inception of his little venture, smilingly reminding all present that he never had offered them anything but cold tea or sold them the beverage under any other name.

NAVAL PROGRAM IS NOT DECIDED

(By Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The house naval committee approved unanimously the administration's three-year naval program with capital ships reduced from sixteen to ten because of the difference in the views of experts over the value of battle cruisers.

The program adopted also provided for ten scout cruisers. Construction of smaller craft is held in abeyance to permit the department to make recommendations to round out the navy in light war lessons.

NON UNION MEN ORDER A STRIKE

(By Associated Press) SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 31.—A strike of boilermakers in shops outside the shipyards will be called tomorrow for extension of the Macy wage award to non-union shipbuilding shops.

FATAL EXPLOSION AT A DYE PLANT

(By Associated Press) NYACK, N. Y., Jan. 31.—Three are reported missing and twenty removed to a hospital following an explosion that wrecked the plant of the Ankin Products Corporation.

TIMBERS ARE SHORT IN LONDON MINES

(By Associated Press) PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 31.—Scarcity of mine timber is a serious problem that confronts the anthracite coal mining industry today.

Lumber is just as necessary in mining coal as it is in the blast, the motor engine and the mine car. Every foot of fresh wood is being cut and used for the reason that practically all of the mountains in the anthracite region have been denuded of timber.

Shipments of gangway, slope and shaft timber from the south have been largely cut off by demands of the government. In instances, timber shipped from Georgia consigned to the mines was commandeered by the government. Concrete is coming more and more into use, but at the present time timber is required and it is scarce. Without it, progress cannot be made in efforts to increase the output of coal.

BELLEHELEN MINE RESUMES TODAY

J. J. Sweet, general manager of the Tonopah Kawich Mining and Milling company, operating at Bellehelen, left this morning with a crew to resume work in the mine. The property has been closed since last Christmas owing to a shortage of help due to ravages of influenza and to admit of a thorough examination and report for the chief stockholders of the Cresson Mining company, of Cripple Creek, who hold an option on the control of the Bellehelen company. The mine will resume work at once and shipments which were formerly maintained at the rate of five tons daily will continue to go to the West End mill. Before the company stopped the ore sent to the mill here averaged close to $100 a ton, making the mine one of the richest producers in the state.

Fred W. Reed, who has just been released from service with the colors, will have charge. He has had extensive experience in Oatman and Old Mexico and is credited with being one of the best all round managers in this part of the country. He will take up the development where it left off and drift on the 350 level.

Edward N. Raab, who died here January 17th, after making an examination of the mine secured enough facts and information to satisfy his principals who hold the option. Should the Cresson people become interested in Nevada they will set the pace for big work as that company is one of the best known high-grade mines in the world. The glory-hole where the great enrichment occurs in the Cresson is comparable to nothing more than a quarry with values running from $500 to $150,000 a ton. The company has a big reserve fund which may be used for the acquisition of other holdings.

SLOT MACHINES AND PUNCH BOARDS GO

District Attorney Harry H. Atkinson, acting under instruction of the attorney general, sent out notices last night to all places operating slot machines, punch boards or any other game of chance that they would have to be put under the counter as of January 31st.

Among those who come under the order is Dave McKay who had gone to considerable expense to arrange for raffling his home as he has removed his family to Fallon and wanted to make a quick transfer. Any raffles by churches or charitable organizations come under the ban.

one and the same person. From Frank Miller's hardware store the lad got some small change, when he broke in there one night at 9 o'clock.

Now it is up to the editor of the Times who seems to have an inside bunch that these robberies were committed by "two suspicious characters" seen loafing around town and whose arrest was urged on the police as the only way of clearing up the mysterious burglaries. It is such "suspicious characters" existed anywhere than in the imagination of the Times editor, it is surprising that the wise man with the dope sheet did not give any more definite information. Any law abiding citizen with such knowledge in his possession would feel impelled to tell the police and rid the city of the menace and as a matter of self protection. The arrest of Harvey Krohn vindicates Chief of Police Grant, who would not have succeeded had he yielded to the threats of the alley sleuth by divulging what he knew and what he was going to bring the thief to justice.

AMUSEMENTS

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS AT BUTLER TODAY

The attraction at the Butler today is Douglas Fairbanks, in "Say, Young Fellow," one of the most novel pictures in which the famous screen athlete, comedian, has ever appeared. And all of Mr. Fairbanks' admirers will find this photoplay one of the most delightful of the Fairbanks series. It is a novel theme handled with the greatest artistry and is in every respect a super-extraordinary picture attraction. In this splendid picture, Mr. Fairbanks portrays the role of an optimistic smiling and brave newspaper reporter who does some remarkable feats in the performance of his reportorial duties. He scales walls and houses, vaults over flower beds and fences like a deer, battles fiercely against heavy odds with some factory employees, and with the aid of "the girl" overcomes the villain. The story is intensely interesting and its development logical and highly dramatic. The picture is absolutely "touted" as one of Doug's very best, so come early prepared for a fine evening's entertainment and many a good laugh. Added to the program will be a Paramount-Bray cartoon comedy. Tomorrow, you will see a famous Broadway star, Olive Tell, in a famous Broadway play, "Secret Stripes," a society crook story with plenty of thrills, action and many new twists. Also a Mack and Sennott comedy, "His Smothered Laughter." Remember, Sunday, "Hands Up" again, and your old favorite, Charles Ray, in "His Own Home Town."

Now it is up to the editor of the Times who seems to have an inside bunch that these robberies were committed by "two suspicious characters" seen loafing around town and whose arrest was urged on the police as the only way of clearing up the mysterious burglaries. It is such "suspicious characters" existed anywhere than in the imagination of the Times editor, it is surprising that the wise man with the dope sheet did not give any more definite information.
